

White Paper on International Economy and Trade 2019 Contents

Part II The current global economy and challenges to free trade

Chapter 1	Deeper cross-border integration of the global economy	1
Section 1	Increasing economic interdependence among economies	1
1.	Globalization of goods and services	2
2.	Globalization of capital	26
3.	Globalization of knowledge	64
4.	Movement of people	82
Section 2	Economic relations of each country/region with the U.S. and China	103
1.	Trade relationships	103
2.	Investment relationship	129
3.	China's Belt and Road Initiative (BRI) and economic cooperation	134
4.	Relationship between U.S. and China	137
Chapter 2	The rise of protectionism and the need to reestablish the international trading system	143
Section 1	The history of protectionism and the development of free trade	143
1.	Overview of the history	143
2.	History of protectionism and international cooperation	144
Section 2	Background of imposition of trade restrictive measures	160
1.	Doubt on free trade	160
2.	Existence of policies and practices that are suspected to distort the market	170
3.	Competing for dominance in the high-tech area	193
Section 3	Negative impacts caused by trade restrictive measures	210
1.	Impact on trade deficits from an economic perspective	210
2.	Impact of trade-restrictive measures (case study analysis)	221
3.	Impact of recent trade-restrictive measures (those related to U.S. Trade Expansion Act of 1962 Section 232 and U.S. Trade Act of 1974 Section 301) on the global economy	253
Section 4	The need to reestablish the international trading system	292
1.	Fears about the failure of the multilateral trade system to function	292
2.	Increase of regional trade agreements	298
3.	Need to develop rules relevant to new sectors	302
4.	Need to develop a new, rule-based system of international trade	307
Chapter 3	Japan's external economic relations and future challenges	309
Section 1	Foreign trade and investment	309

1. Trends in trade in goods.....	309
2. Trends in Japan's current account balance.....	323
3. Trends in financial account balance	327
4. Trends in investments	327
Section 2 Global value chains	331
1. Overseas development of Japanese companies.....	331
2. Development of GVC with Asia in its center	343
Section 3 The presence of Japan in Asia and future challenges of Japanese companies/industries	381
1. Progress of East Asia's inter-process division of work upon Japan's advance to ASEAN	381
2. Japan's shrinking presence in ASEAN's trade and its background.....	383
3. Changes in Japanese companies' business style; shift from "emphasis on profit in exports of goods" to "emphasis on profit in dividends and royalties"	395
4. Strong capital ties between Japanese companies and companies in ASEAN - comparison with China and Republic of Korea	398
5. Changes in ASEAN economy	400
6. Mutual cooperation between Japan and ASEAN to grow together	409
7. Direction Japanese companies and industries should take in the future.....	413
Addendum.....	432
References.....	434
List of Figures and Tables.....	441
List of columns
Column 5 Consideration on trade in value added	23
Column 6 Economic Policy Uncertainty Index	89
Column 7 Misconceptions regarding the trade deficit (U.S. think tank report).....	219
Column 8 Impact of greater car and car part tariffs based on Trade Expansion Act of 1962 Section 232	291
Column 9 Worldwide activities of US enterprise.....	362
Column 10 Japan Mall Project.....	427