

Toward Further Prosperity of ASEAN and Japan

「SUMU (Living Together)」 is essential

Living together is sharing issues and resources.
Creating a right environment is indispensable.

Movement of "People" is inevitable in active exchanges (people, business, tourism) between Japan and ASEAN and among ASEAN countries.

Liberalization of service industries focuses on tourism, transportation, value-added agriculture, etc. to emphasize ASEAN's strengths.

Collaboration and technical alliance with Japanese agriculture industries and companies is important for advancing the service industries.

Collaboration with Japanese small and medium-sized enterprises (SME) is important for ASEAN's effort to nurture its SME.

Currently, liberalization of Goods movement is making progress.
Liberalization of movements of Services and People also needs to be promoted.

Free movements of "Goods, People and Services" are key for further promoting trade and investment.

Movement of "People" is the most vital for doubling trade and investment.
